

WE NEED ALL THE HELP WE CAN GET ...

First of all, let us introduce ourselves. We (Debbie & Paige) are two friends who have concocted a crazy plan to participate in the 2010 Seattle to Portland bike tour. (It really does span from Seattle to Portland.) We will be documenting our adventure in a "bikeumentary" and sharing it here on the web. Our goal is to share the knowledge we gain along the way, and prove that two average Janes can accomplish something a little extraordinary.

There isn't anything like 204 miles in the saddle to show a gal what she's made of. We intend to find out.

How are we going to accomplish this goal? We anticipate that the grease and sweat from blogging, biking, bruises, and blow-outs will bring us closer to our dream of accomplishing something, well, extraordinary. But we're not kidding when we tell you that we're really a couple of Janes – we have rent, student loans, and work 40+ hours at a local nonprofit – we need all the help we can get to make the long road to Seattle happen. Some of the resources we're hoping to draw on include sponsorships, in-kind donations, word-of-mouth advertising, and kind words of support and motivation. We believe that if we can do this – you can do it (we already believe you can do it too – but maybe our story will inspire you).

Are you interested in partnering with us to help propel us forward and make this dream a reality?
